Irish Drinking Songs for Cat Lovers

Imagine for a moment all of the crazy little things your cat does. Racing around your home, climbing on door frames, napping in the oddest positions snuzzling up to you, waking you up in the morning begging for food, having them rub their tail against your leg. These are the small pleasures of owning a cat. All the beauty, the sweetness, and all the madness, that's what this album is all about.
